

Training

Your location for lifelong learning

Brother and Sister share their LOVE for GIS

The Durban born brother and sister duo, Ashaal and Nerosha, have done most things together since childhood. From attending the same school and higher education institution. To this very day they even share the 'LOVE for GEOGRAPHY' in their professional adult lives.

Training at Esri South Africa provides them with the knowledge so that they can accomplish great things in their organizations and communities by applying geography to solve problems.

